

Bee Branch Creek Restoration Project

The figure above shows all of the properties that may be impacted by the project. The impact will vary by property. In some instances only a portion of a property may be required. The property acquisition process will likely take up to three years to complete, beginning in 2005.