a) U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Site Visit

Teresa Bassler, Supervisor for Assisted Housing, stated that the purpose of the letter from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) was to give an overview of their May 25, 2016 visit. Janet Walker, Supervisor for Assisted Housing, added that the reason for the visit was because the department did not meet HUD's goal for leasing up (1,063 vouchers or 95% of HUD's funding) in the prior calendar year. The department is on track to meeting, possibly exceeding, HUD's goal this year. Alvin Nash, Director for Housing & Community Development Department, spoke about the Voluntary Compliance Agreement with HUD.

- b) Federal Fiscal Year 2016/City of Dubuque Fiscal Year 2018 Phoenix Housing Continuum of Care Renewal Application

Walker stated that Continuum of Care Renewal Application for Phoenix Housing is for a grant for a sponsor-based program that provides permanent supportive housing when there is an individual in the household with a permanent disability. The grant was due for submission by June 24, 2016. Due to the short turnaround time, the application was sent to City Council first for approval. She requested that the Commission approve the application submission.

Commissioner Wall asked whether or not Project Concern is directly tied to this program. Walker stated that the program is tied directly to Project Concern and that meetings have been scheduled to figure out how the sponsor-based services will continue. Nash explained that the Board voted to dissolve Project Concern as of July 1, 2016.

Commissioner Schwendinger moved to approve the submission of the grant application. Seconded by Amy Eudaley, Commissioner. All present in favor. Motion passed.

- c) Iowa Council on Homelessness Continuum of Care Project Site Visit

Janet Walker spoke about the site visit being held on August 3, 2016 at 1:30 p.m. in the Housing Conference Room with the two of the team leads for the Iowa Council on Homelessness. The purpose of the site visit is to see how Housing is doing/performing in the Project as was indicated in the application.

Reports

- a. Crime/Nuisance Property Report

Nash stated that there is an officer who tracks criminal activity in Dubuque and sees if individuals involved are on the Section 8 program. There was belief that the crimes were attributed to by those on the Section 8 program. The statistics have found that a small percentage involved in the criminal activities in the City are on the program.

- b. CDBG Advisory Commission Report

Erica Haugen, Community Development Specialist, stated that on June 15, 2016 and June 21, 2016 the Community Development Advisory Commission met to review the recommendations of a Purchase of Service Grant Sub-Committee. They recommended 9 of the 11 applications that were received to the City Council for the 2017 Purchase of Services Grant. The City Council reviewed and approved the recommendations and will go to the City Council for final approval on July 5, 2016.

She spoke about the presentation that Kris Neyen, Rehabilitation Programs Supervisor, concerning the Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP) and the homes that have been purchased and revitalized. Nash asked Neyen, to give a
