Reports

Housing Commission

Commissioner Dalton shared that the Planning Department asked Alexis Steger to have a liaison to serve on the Long Range Planning Advisory Commission. A request will be sent to City Council to consider an ordinance change, if the ordinance change is approved, the Housing Commission will select a liaison to serve for a term of one year.

Commissioner Dalton shared that the Housing Commission serves as an advisory board for the Continuum of Care Special Needs Assistance Program (CoC SNAP). A termination has been proposed for a client; client has requested an appeal. Three Housing Commissioners will serve during the hearing for the appeals process.

Resilient Community Advisory Commission

Commissioner Boles shared that they continue to discuss the Climate Action Plan goal setting and recommendations for council about how to prioritize things. One of the goals is to plant trees in low-mod income areas, it has an action step for better insulation, which could fall under Rental or Homeowner Rehabilitation Programs and could be worthy of receiving CDBG funding. Commissioner Boles offered a consideration to form a subcommittee between the Community Development Advisory Commission and Resilient Community Advisory Commission members to further discuss possible consideration for CDBG funds.

Human Rights Commission
