NEWS RELEASE

April 1, 2010– For Immediate Release

City Expo 2010: Everyone Counts

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The City of Dubuque will hold its annual City Expo on Tuesday, April 13, from 5-8 p.m. in the Five Flags Civic Center at 405 Main Street. Admission is free and all Dubuque residents are invited to attend.

City Expo is designed to educate Dubuque residents about city programs, services, and resources. The theme of this year's Expo is "City Expo 2010: Everyone Counts" and will emphasize the importance of participation in the 2010 Census. Displays will highlight City services and programs and include information on how a complete count of residents is important to Dubuque.

City Expo is a free, annual event that features activities and demonstrations designed for visitors of all ages. Dubuque residents are encouraged to bring their entire family. In an effort to reduce the use of plastic bags and support the City's sustainability efforts, people who plan to attend are encouraged to bring their own bag to collect informational and promotional materials which may be provided.
