NEWS RELEASE

8:00 p.m., June 12, 2008 – For Immediate Release

City Closing Three Dubuque Entrance Ramps Along I-80 Detour Route

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The City of Dubuque is closing three entrance ramps in preparation for the influx of traffic from the Interstate 80 (I-80) traffic detour which is rerouting traffic through Dubuque beginning at 8 p.m. tonight.

By 8:30 p.m. tonight (June 12), the following entrance ramps will be closed as a public safety measure and to maximize traffic flow through Dubuque during the I-80 traffic detour:

- Hill/Bryant Street entrance ramp for eastbound traffic on US 20/Dodge Street,
- Grandview entrance ramp for eastbound traffic on US 20/Dodge Street, and
- South Grandview entrance ramp for northbound traffic on US 61/151.

These ramps will remain closed as long as necessary during the I-80 traffic detour, which could last several days.
