January 13, 2011 – For Immediate Release

‘Building Truly Inclusive Organizations’ Training Offered

DUBUQUE, Iowa – City of Dubuque Human Rights Director Kelly Larson will offer an educational session titled, “Beyond Diversity Training: Building Truly Inclusive Organizations” on Tuesday, January 24, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Northeast Iowa Community College (NICC), Town Clock Center, Room 106A.

The training is being offered to human resource professionals and anyone involved with or considering diversity training, non-traditional recruitment and retention efforts, or intercultural competency. The general public is also invited. The cost of the session is $24 which includes lunch.

Recognizing the diversity that exists within organizations and developing the ability to work effectively together across cultural differences is crucial for success in today's world. This session will provide an overview of a developmental approach to skill building and systems-analysis for long-term sustainable change.

To register, or for more information, contact NICC Professional Development/Business Program Manager Marcie Rowan at 563-557-8271, ext. 380 or rowanm@nicc.edu.
