NEWS RELEASE

Nov. 19, 2013 -- For Immediate Release

Second Annual Volunteerfest on Friday

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The Dubuque Circles Initiative, in collaboration with Project Concern and Operation: New View Community Action Agency, will host a Volunteerfest from 4–7 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 22, at the Courtside gym at 2095 Holliday Dr. in Dubuque. The event is free and the public is invited to attend to learn more about local volunteer opportunities serving the economically disadvantaged.

Participating organizations will present overviews on volunteer opportunities that help increase economic opportunities for low-income families in Dubuque. Attendees will have the chance to discuss opportunities with volunteers and staff from the different organizations. The open house event will begin at 4 p.m. but those interested in attending can stop in any time before 7 p.m. Hors d'oeuvres will be served.

“This is a great opportunity to see what these three great organizations are doing to help those in our community who are economically disadvantaged!” says Zachary Shay, VISTA serving with the Circles Initiative.
