NEWS RELEASE

Sept. 9, 2014 – For Immediate Release

Applicants Sought for Community Development Advisory Commission Vacancies

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The City of Dubuque is seeking volunteer applicants to fill two vacancies on its Community Development Advisory Commission; one is an at-large (community-wide) position and the other must reside in one of Dubuque’s low/moderate income areas (map attached).

The Community Development Advisory Commission receives public input and makes recommendations to the City Council on the allocation of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds received annually from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The federal CDBG funds are used for eligible activities in the area of housing, economic development, neighborhood and public services, public facilities, and planning/administration.

The Community Development Advisory Commission is comprised of nine members appointed by City Council to serve staggered three-year terms. Meetings are held at 5:30 p.m. every third Wednesday of each month at the Historic Federal Building.

Applications can be printed or submitted online at www.cityofdubuque.org/boards or through the City Clerk’s Office at 563-589-4120 or cityclerk@cityofdubuque.org.

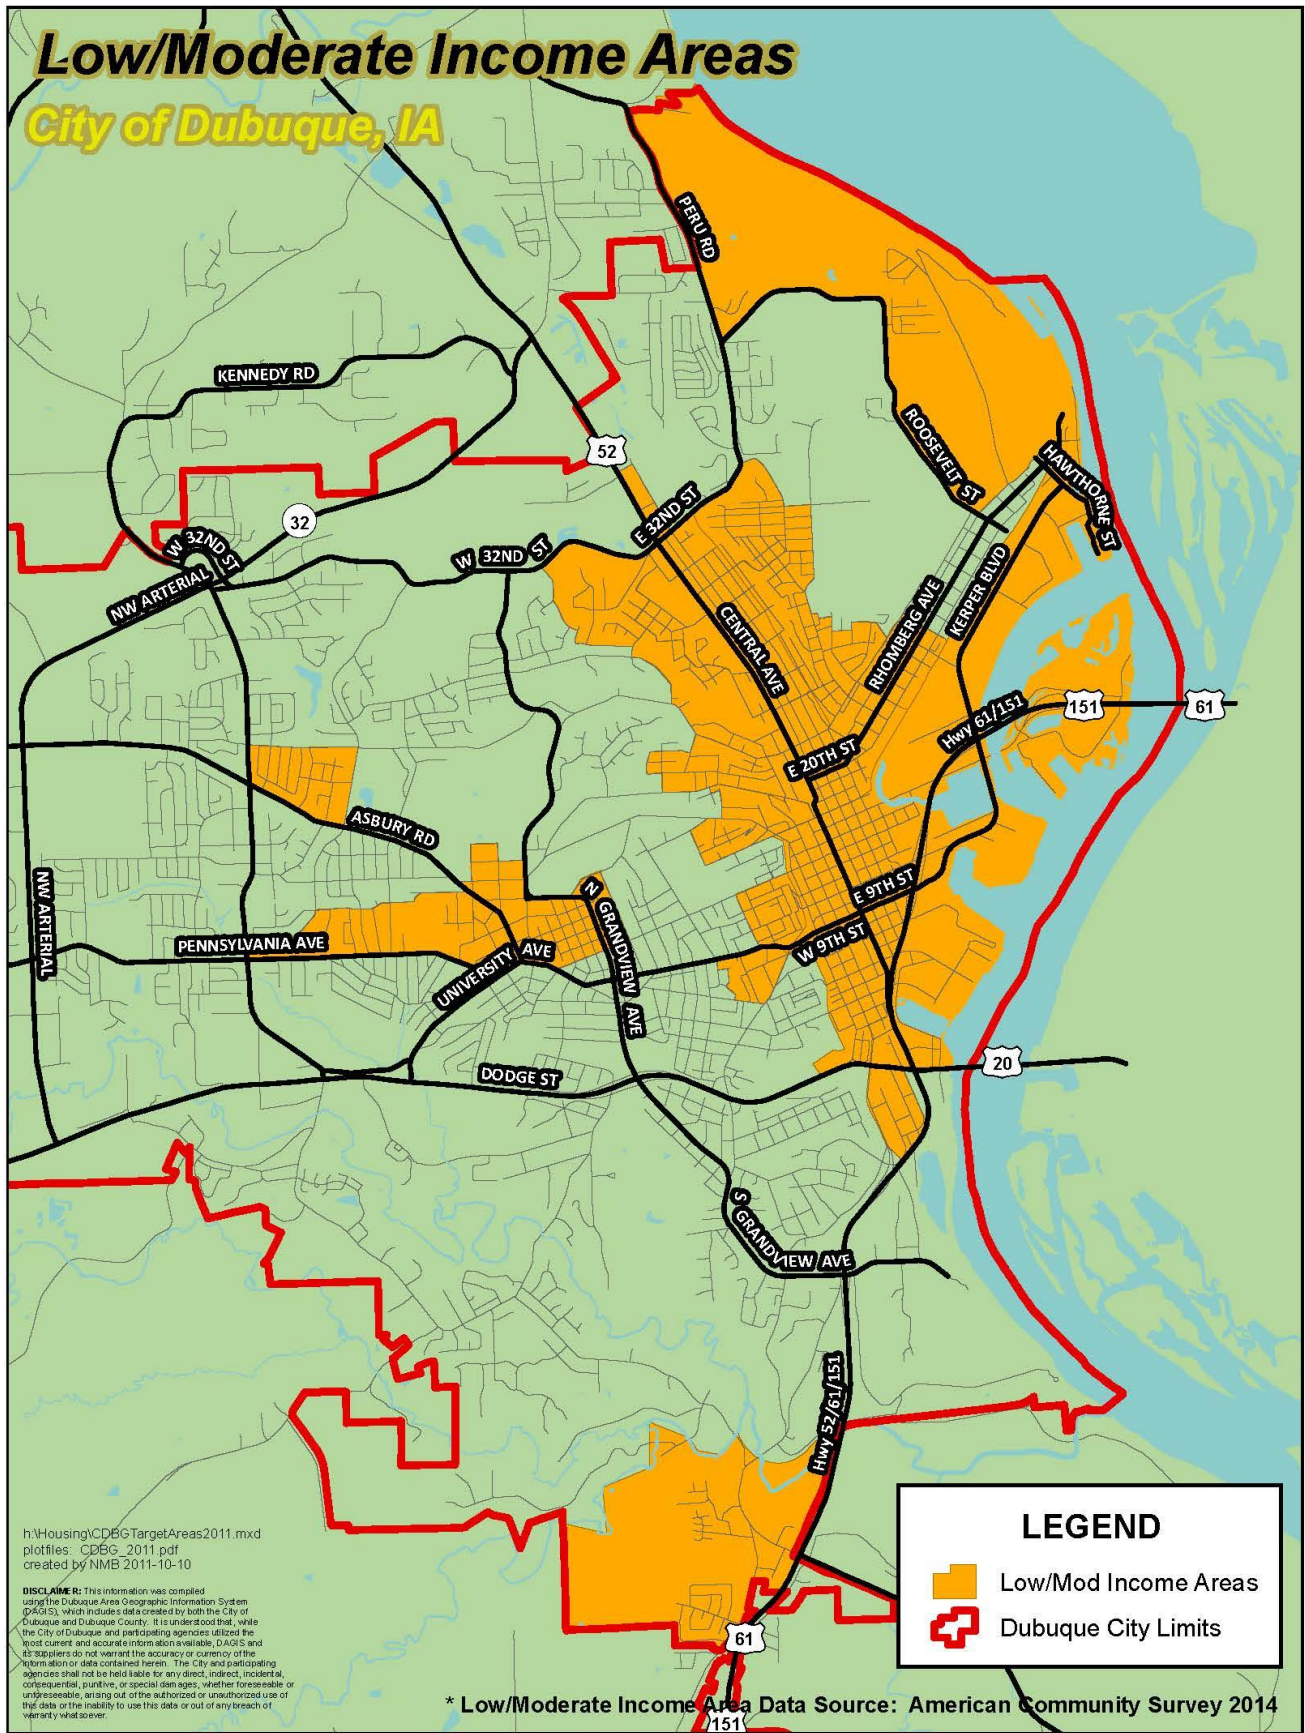

Applications can be submitted at any time for all boards and commissions and are activated as positions become available. Applications remain on file for one year from the date they are submitted. To apply online or view a complete list of boards and commissions, descriptions, terms, and meeting information, please visit www.cityofdubuque.org/boards or contact the City Clerk’s Office.
