City Website Features Surplus Items for Bid

DUBUQUE, Iowa —The City of Dubuque now offers a web page and electronic notification system for those interested in the sale of surplus City items.

Items will be listed when they become available for sale at www.cityofdubuque.org/citysurplus. To receive e-mail and/or text message notifications when new items are listed, subscribe to the “Surplus Items for Sale” list at www.cityofdubuque.org/notifyme. A notice of items for sale will also be published in the Telegraph Herald newspaper.

Types of surplus items for sale could vary depending on the City department. Examples may include, but are not limited to, real estate, vehicles, vehicle accessories, light poles, equipment, electronics, and furniture.

For more details on surplus City items and bid terms and conditions, visit www.cityofdubuque.org/citysurplus or call 563-589-4131.
