Public Invited to Attend Intercultural Communication Training

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The City of Dubuque Intercultural Competency Training Team invites the public to attend free intercultural communication training sessions at the Carnegie-Stout Public Library this fall. The training is designed to increase effective communication and confident interaction among different cultures.

Training sessions will be held Tuesday, Oct. 27, and Tuesday, Nov. 3, in the library's third floor Aigler Auditorium, with each session lasting from 5:30-8 p.m. The two sessions build on each other, and those who register are expected to attend both sessions.

The Intercultural Competency Training Team recognizes that the long-term sustainability of our community depends on having the skills to understand each other, being able to work together constructively across differences, and creating boards, commissions, and a larger community where all members feel connected and welcome.

To RSVP, contact Carol Spinoso in the Human Rights Department at (563) 589-4190 or humanrgt@cityofdubuque.org by October 20. Space is limited to the first 25 people to RSVP.
