NEWS RELEASE

Oct. 29, 2015 – For Immediate Release

Dubuque Circles® to Host ‘Circles 101’ Events

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The Dubuque Circles® Initiative will host two free “Circles 101” events in November for people to learn more about the program that connects volunteers and community leaders to families wanting to make the journey out of poverty.

Community members are invited to attend one of two events. The first will take place on Thursday, Nov. 12, from noon-1 p.m., in the Housing and Community Development Department conference room on the third floor of the Historic Federal Building, 350 W. Sixth St. The second will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 17, from 5:45 – 7 p.m. in the commons area of Prescott Elementary School at 1151 White St. To attend one of these events, RSVP to Andrea Helgager at ahelgager@cityofdubuque.org or 563-690-6101. A free lunch or dinner will be provided to those who RSVP.

The Dubuque Circles® Initiative is part of an innovative, national movement. Its mission is to build collaborative circles of support, so those living in a cycle of poverty may lead themselves and their families to permanent stability. The public is encouraged to attend one of the Circles 101 events to learn more about the initiative and how they can support participants in achieving their goals to get ahead. For more background on the program, please visit www.cityofdubuque.org/circles or call 563-589-4230.
