NEWS RELEASE

April 12, 2016 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Miller Riverview Campground Opening Delayed Until April 22

DUBUQUE, Iowa – The opening of the City of Dubuque’s Miller Riverview Campground will be delayed until Friday, April 22, due to wet conditions.

The campground was originally scheduled to open on April 15. Refunds will be issued to those with reservations booked from April 15- 21. According to City of Dubuque Park Division Manager Steve Fehsal, there is still standing water in some parts of the campground and other areas are still too wet from the recent high river level.

The Miller Riverview Campground online reservation system is live now at www.cityofdubuque.org/millerriverview. Campers are welcome to visit the site and click on the “RESERVE A SPOT TODAY” button to make reservations for the 2016 season. Online reservations are available up to 240 days (approximately eight months) in advance.

Miller Riverview Park, located at 1851 Admiral Sheehy Dr. (adjacent to the Mystique Casino), offers camping, picnic and recreation areas, walking and biking path, and provides a great view of the Mississippi River traffic. Camping fees are $15 per night for standard electric sites and $12 per night for standard non-electric basic sites.
