Mayor Buol's 10th State of the City Address Set for Sept. 8

DUBUQUE, Iowa – Dubuque Mayor Roy D. Buol will present his 10th annual State of the City address at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 8. The public is invited to attend the free event which will be hosted by the Dubuque chapter of the League of Women Voters and held in the City Council Chambers on second floor of the Historic Federal Building at 350 W. Sixth St.

The theme for Buol's address will be, "Dubuque 2016: An Enterprising City." "2005 to 2015 was a tremendously enterprising decade for Dubuque," said Buol. "Innovation was enormously important and it's important to understand that it is the only strategy for out-performing a dismal economy; that it helps to cultivate identity and inspire loyalty to community and one another. This year's address will describe how Dubuque residents, businesses, and other partners have laid the foundation for the future. It is now time to take the next step, and imagine how we want Dubuque to continue to evolve."

The event will be broadcast live on CityChannel Dubuque and streamed live and archived on the City website at www.cityofdubuque.org/media. (CityChannel is currently accessible on channels 8 and 85.2 on the Mediacom cable system; however, channel 85.2 will change to 117.2 by September.) DVDs of the program will be available for checkout at the Carnegie-Stout Public Library and from the City of Dubuque Cable TV Division in the City Hall Annex at 1300 Main Street or by calling 563-589-4181.
