Dubuque Receives Eleventh Consecutive Distinguished Budget Presentation Award

DUBUQUE, Iowa –The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) has announced that the City of Dubuque has received the GFOA’s Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for the City’s budget for the eleventh consecutive year. A Certificate of Recognition for Budget Presentation has been presented to City of Dubuque Budget Director Jennifer Larson and City of Dubuque Senior Budget Analyst Alexis Steger.

According to the GFOA, the award represents a significant achievement by the City and reflects the commitment of the City and City staff to meeting the highest principles of government budgeting.

In order to receive the budget award, the City had to satisfy nationally recognized guidelines for effective budget presentation. These guidelines are designed to assess how well the entity’s budget serves as:

- a policy document,
- a financial plan,
- an operations guide, and
- a communications device

Budget documents must be rated “proficient” in all four categories to receive the award. The City of Dubuque received “proficient” or higher ratings in all required criteria. The GFOA says award recipients have pioneered efforts to improve the quality of budgeting and provide an excellent example for other governments throughout North America.

The GFOA is a nonprofit professional association serving more than 18,000 government finance professionals throughout North America. The GFOA’s Distinguished Budget Presentation Awards Program is the only national awards program in governmental budgeting.
