OTHERS PRESENT: Marie Ware

MINUTES
APPROVED;
VOTE: Commissioner Parks motioned and Commissioner Bakke seconded, to approve the minutes of the February 6, 2017 meeting. The motion passed unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS: Event Manager, Ali Levasseur, shared that Five Flags Center received the 2017 365 Impact Award Best New Thing for Wags at the Flags event.

Commissioner Bakke complimented 365 for the cover story featuring Five Flags March events. He also complimented the "behind the scenes" article in the Telegraph Herald. Both of these publications are helping to keep Five Flags in top of mind awareness before the study begins.

OLD BUSINESS: Marie Ware reported the city council approved CSL to conduct the feasibility study and the contract with them will be finalized soon. CSL will begin reaching out to commissioners and this is the time to give your information and input for the study.

Ware also reported that the Theater tuck-pointing project is moving forward. Five Flags Staff reported the companies had been here to look at the building many times and will begin work in May 2017.

General Manager, HR Cook, discussed that the City Council approved the FY18 budget for Five Flags Center.
