NEWS RELEASE

Aug. 29, 2017 – For Immediate Release

City Offices Closed on Labor Day, Bunker Hill Open

DUBUQUE, Iowa – City of Dubuque offices will be closed on Monday, Sept. 4, for Labor Day. This includes City Hall and most other City offices and facilities including the Carnegie-Stout Public Library; however, Bunker Hill Golf Course WILL BE OPEN on Labor Day.

There will be no refuse, yard waste or curbside recycling collections by City crews on Labor Day. Instead, these Monday collections will be made on Saturday, Sept. 2. The Dubuque Metro Landfill will also be closed on Labor Day.

The Jule's fixed route and mini-bus services will not operate on Labor Day. Regular fixed route and mini-bus services will resume on Tuesday morning.

For non-emergency issues during City office closures, please call 589-4415. In the case of an emergency, always call 911.
