2) Library Use Statistics – Henricks reported that compared to August 2017, the number of checkouts was 4% lower, but the number of visitors to the library is up 1%. The number of new library accounts opened was up 17% compared to August of 2017. Adult programs were a hit in August and included three author visits. Attendance to adult programs increased 94% compared to programs last August. Checkouts of children’s materials was lower than the same time last year, but program attendance in August numbered 1,014, which is a 22% increase compared to August of 2017.

3) Marketing Update – Henricks reported that the Library’s marketing agency, Red Rokk, continued its promotion of e-books and e-audio during the month of August. An increase in checkouts of these materials as well as new library accounts should be expected as a result. Based on new card signups and checkouts, the campaign appears to have been successful. New library card signups increased 17% compared to last August. Both e-books and e-audio checkouts were up 23.3% compared to August of 2017. Individually, e-book checkouts increased 16% and e-audio was up 34% compared to August of 2017.

Personnel and Organization Update – Henricks provided a summary of the Relations Committee meeting held on Monday, September 17, 2018. After a review of job descriptions and workloads, a reorganization plan was created that will take place on October 14, 2018. Henricks expressed her desire to take retention efforts to a new level. She reported that over 44% of positions in the library, excluding the entry level jobs of clerks and interns, have been filled by promotion; however, current conditions reflect an employees’ market. Henricks plans to conduct “stay interviews” and plans to meet with individual employees to learn about what they like most about their work, what keeps them here, what might entice them away, what kind of support they need, and how we can help employees reach their goals.

The Committee and the Board supported the reorganization plan and beginning of “stay interviews."
