Standing Items: Goals

Goal #1: Education

The Chair commented that Jubek New World Brewing hosts monthly gatherings for conversation on various topics every 2nd Wednesday of the month at 8:00 p.m. This month's conversation focused on equity.

Goal #2: Housing

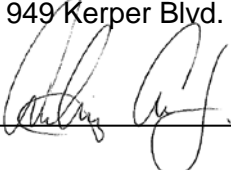

Ed Raber, Director of Dubuque True North, provided a quarterly update on the progress of that initiative. To date, there haven't been any vacant properties renovated, but recently three properties have been purchased. Letters are being sent to various businesses, organizations, and institutions inviting partnership opportunities. Ed will return in May 2019 to provide another update. Also in May, they will begin the planning process for hosting community discussions in an attempt to connect residents with Ed and True North staff.

Goal #3: Employment

Commissioner Jackson advised that Resource Unite will act as the fiscal agent for the Race Conference. The breakout sessions have been solidified and they have speakers for most of them. Rick Dickenson from GDDC has committed funds for this event, and they will continue to seek sponsorship.

Adjournment:

Commissioner Jackson motioned and Commissioner Schiesl seconded to adjourn. All in favor. The meeting ended at 5:50 p.m. The next regularly scheduled meeting is Monday, February 11, 2019, at the Jule Operations & Training Center, 949 Kerper Blvd.
